"Young, fresh and incredibly talented" is not something you hear from industry experts every day, but that is exactly how multi-platinum selling, Grammy-winning, super producer, Jake Gosling (Ed Sheeran, The Libertines, Shania Twain) has described redlane. So much so, he not only agreed to work with and develop them, he also signed them to his highly regarded tastemaker label, Goldun Egg. 2 EPs down within one incredible year and hot off a summer full of gigs, the boys show no sign of slowing.
